85100000 Health services

II.1.3. Type of contract

Services

II.1.4. Short description

An acute home visiting service provides support to general practice in delivering quality care through proactive general practice by centralising aspects of daily provision. The initial patient contact remains within general practice through a triage and referral system, maintaining continuity for patients. This service will provide optimal care for patients keeping them at home wherever possible, maximise efficiencies of workforce, and demonstrate value for money by reducing non-elective admissions.
