Title: School camps Råde kommune - framework agreement

Description: Råde municipality shall enter into a contract for the delivery of school camps for pupils in sixth years at the municipality's two primary schools. The School of Camp shall contribute to social and professional learning outcomes in accordance with the Norwegian Directorate of Education and Training's guidelines for school camps. The stay shall take place from Monday to Thursday. It is desirable that both schools are offered school stays at camps in the same week. School camps ought to be within a 2.5 hour journey path, calculated from Råde Town Hall. The location should also be at a certain distance to the municipality to ensure that children do not go home by themselves. School camps further away from a 2.5 hour period will not be rejected. A market dialogue has been held via Merccell before the published procurement has been published.
