II.1.5. Short description of the contract or purchase(s)

DNK has previously held a competition for framework agreements for the delivery of radio terminals for the emergency network. These contracts shall soon expire and they shall be replaced by new framework agreements. DNK has previously been the owner of all radio terminals in the emergency network, but this is now being transferred to each xDO. HDO is therefore holding this procurement in order to ensure new framework agreements for supplementary procurements that can complete the existing radio terminals of the types Motorola and Sepura, the delivery of new radio terminals, support and maintenance of both existing and new equipment, a contract for the delivery of 'accessories for the radio terminals'. See the qualification documentation for further information on the procurement.

DNK owns the emergency network and shall approve the products, through standardised minimum requirements, a type approval (http://dinkom.no/global/dokumenter/terminal_technical_minimum_requirements_EN.pdf). All products offered in the competition phase must be or must be able to be type approved by DNK.

See the qualification documentation for further information on the extent and content.

— A brief description of the delivery.

— Time of execution.

— Scope of delivery in monetary amount.

— Name, and telephone number of the reference person at the Contracting Authority.

If it is not possible to acquire signed or verified attestations, the tenderer shall provide a list of all relevant assignments with descriptions according to the above points.

The Contracting Authority must have the possibility to contact the contact persons who are listed.

The tenderer can choose to rely on other companies' capacity to meet the technical and professional qualification requirements/ to strengthen their technical and professional qualifications.

The tenderer must, in such an event, document the resources of the companies on which he will rely and prove that he will have the requisite resources from these companies at his disposal during the contract period, for example by presenting a commitment statement, guarantee, co-operation agreement or similar.

This applies regardless of the legal nature of the connection between the companies, i.e. that the supporting companies can either be the tenderer's parent company, another company in the same group, a co-operation partner etc.

Minimum level(s) of standards possibly required:

1. Tenderers shall have sufficient implementational ability related to the contract's delivery and service areas.

2. Tenderers shall have good experience from similar deliveries, the following will be emphasised:
