Section III: Legal, economic, financial and technical information

III.1. Conditions related to the contract

III.1.1. Deposits and guarantees required

Not Applicable.

III.1.2. Main financing conditions and payment arrangements and/or reference to the relevant provisions governing them

III.1.3. Legal form to be taken by the group of economic operators to whom the contract is to be awarded

Offers from consortia are welcome. However, should a consortium submit a tender which proves to be the most economically advantageous, then a legal entity shall require to be formed prior to the proposed award of any contract. Each member of the consortium shall require to be jointly and severally liable for any associated implied, or expressed, legal and/or contractual obligations.

III.1.4. Contract performance conditions

The performance of the contract is subject to particular conditions: yes

Description of particular conditions: Particular conditions shall be set out in the relevant tender and/ or subsequent contractual documentation.

III.2. Conditions for participation

III.2.1. Suitability to pursue the professional activity, including requirements relating to enrolment on professional or trade registers

III.2.2. Economic and financial ability

List and brief description of conditions: All Marsh offices have access to information provided by the Marsh Market Information Group (MIG) who monitor and analyse the financial condition of the insurer companies/entities with which Marsh places business. Reports can be produced to provide detailed credit analysis of prospective or current insurers.

MIG analysts review and examine an insurer's profitability, liquidity, leverage, operating results, asset mix, reinsurance security and loss reserve adequacy. This also includes benchmarking insurers against their peers and the overall industry.

Marsh will only use companies that meet our minimum rating criteria – currently this is Standard & Poor's rating of A-. Our client account representatives are responsible for determining whether or not an insurer meets Marsh's financial guidelines and we need the express permission of our clients before we will use companies that fall below this minimum rating standard.

III.2.3. Technical and professional ability
