VI.3. Additional information

VE implemented a dematerialized procedure for the transmission of bidding documents and the submission of candidates' requests to participate.

The tool used is the E Sourcing SAVE solution, which allows buyers to manage the various stages of the purchasing process in a collaborative manner from start to finish.

All documents must be submitted by the candidates on the SAVE E-Sourcing platform.

A link will be sent electronically to the candidates who have expressed their interest by sending an email to VE's Procurement Category Manager:

Sébastien Nicolaon

Direction des Achats Groupe
sebastien.nicolaon@veolia.com
with copy to: naomie.laustau@veolia.com

All documents issued by VE or by Supplier shall be in English, with the sole exception of official documents which may be in French if not available in English. Any official document that would not be written in English or in French shall be provided with a translation in English. The potential Global Framework Agreement will be written in English.

The documents must be sent in electronic format (in the required formats where these are specified and, failing this, in PDF format for the other documents).

All costs associated with participating in the competitive procedure are the responsibility of the tenderer.

In case of difficulties regarding the use of the SAVE e-sourcing tool, it is the candidate's responsibility to contact the VE's Procurement Category Manager.

Tenderers may submit (not mandatory) a hard copy of the documents that they uploaded on the E-Sourcing SAVE platform. This copy will be sent, in a closed envelope with the name of the current procedure and bearing the mention "backup copy" to the following address:

VEOLIA ENVIRONNEMENT

Direction des Achats Groupe

30, Rue Madeleine Vionnet, 93300 Aubervilliers

A l'attention de Mr Sébastien Nicolaon

Any request for additional information, deemed necessary for the tenderer application or the elaboration of the tender must be sent to VE's Procurement Category Manager:

Sébastien Nicolaon

Direction des Achats Groupe
