The Commissioner will incorporate a standstill period at the point information on the award of contract is communicated to tenderers. That notification will provide reasons for the award decision as required by the Light Touch regime of the Public Contracts Regulations 2015. The standstill period, which will be for a minimum of 10 calendar days, provides time for unsuccessful tenderers to challenge the award decision before the contract is entered into. The Public Contracts regulations 2015 provide for aggrieved parties who have been harmed or are at risk of harm by a breach of the rules to take action in the High Court (England, Wales and Northern Ireland). Note that any challenge must be brought in accordance with the time limits which apply under these regulations.
