Several of the owner municipalities of IØD IKS have a need for and would like software to serve their technical services. The software shall be adapted for the joint use of information and to join together trade systems within the technical sector. The software shall also be able to compare the fee basis for each of the trade modules - water, sewage, refuse collection and chimney sweeping. The software shall include systems for the VAR (water, sewage, sanitation) sector.

The municipalities also have a need for software to deal with and print out property tax, but the final decision on the implementation of property tax must be made by the municipal council. Currently it is only Trøgstad municipality that has decided to implement valuations. The other municipalities would like an option to procure a system for property tax.
