II.1.4. Short description of the contract or purchase(s)

The Contracting Authority requires engineering design assistance for an Implementation Organisation for Ensjø and other urban development areas. In 2006, the Agency for Urban Environment and Transport was given responsibility for establishing an Implementation Organisation for the combined development of municipal engineering services infrastructure at Ensjø. The Implementation Organisation's responsibility has, from 2014, been extended to also include other urban development areas such as Vollebekk, Løren/Økern, Bryn, Breivoll, etc.

— The implementation responsibility involves measures within the following areas that regulation-wise shall have a public status: Traffic areas, roads, pavements and open spaces, green areas, park ridges and parks, technical infrastructure, individual measures within technical infrastructure such as, for example altering existing water and waste water disposal, cables and pipelines etc.

— The responsibility also includes the approval of construction plans for public measures that shall be constructed by the private sector, defined in the development contracts, and inspections that the execution is in accordance with the approved plans.

This engineering design assignment is mainly for a continuation of the engineering design services for Ensjø, which are in an ongoing transformation process. In addition the engineering design assignment also includes options for engineering design work for the following new urban development areas in Groruddalen: Breivoll, Vollebekk, Løren/Økern and Bryn. In addition, other urban development areas can be added during the contract period. The new urban development areas are in an early planning phase in which PBE prepares guiding principle plans (VPOR) for the design of the public areas. See annexes 1 - 9 for complete information on the assignment.

BYM would like tenders from consultant engineers for concept selection studies and engineering design works. The following professional fields must be offered:

- transport/roads and structures,
- landscape architecture,
- water and waste disposal,
- electro,
- geotechnics,
- environmental consultant.
