2.1. Procedure

Title: Maintenance of Legacy Washers and Dininfectors at St Vincent's University Hospital (SVUH)

Description: St Vincent's University Hospital (SVUH) holds a limited end-of-life fleet of bed pan washers/disinfectors of the Stanbridge range. This range is now out of circulation in the market, including its components and spare parts. SVUH seeks to maintain this equipment until it is eventually phased out within the organisation. According to its knowledge of the market, only the operator T/A Hospital Technical Systems can source spare parts and has the technical expertise to safely service these legacy washers. SVUH proposes a contract of a Term of maximum four (4) years with said provider. The usage and resulting expenditure per year on these services is reducing incrementally by up to 60%.
