II.1.4. Short description

This voluntary ex-ante transparency notice for a more inclusive working life 2019 - 2022 (the IA agreement) was signed between the government and the main labour market organisations on 18 December 2018 and later extended until 2024. The purpose of the contract is to create a labour market with room for everyone by preventing leave of absence due to illness and dropout, thereby contributing to increasing employment. Training in working environment work is an instrument in the IA agreement, wherein the social partners have a special responsibility for follow-up. The contract states that the organisations will contribute to better and knowledge-based training in working environment work. Training in the working environment and targeted working environment work will be based on knowledge and expertise from the working environment initiative and will be included in the training of managers, employee representatives and safety delegates.
