Title: Labour market measures - AMO - Basic Norwegian

Description: 1. The objective of the procurement is to increase the participant's Norwegian proficiencies and knowledge of working life. This is done through training in Norwegian and the labour market, as well as work practice. The course shall strengthen the participant's possibilities to take further education, or to get to work and become financially independent. 2. The target group for the course is immigrants with low Norwegian abilities, Norwegian A1 or lower. They can either have little or no experience with Norwegian working life or they may have been working previously. Participants must be older than 19 years old and have a valid residence permit. Participants' rights to Norwegian training in municipal management shall be clarified and used before the course place can be given. The Nav office assesses any participants and cooperates with the service provider on recordings. The participant group should be composed with a similar country background/language background and Norwegian proficiencies. Language support will be required. The offer of language support shall, in such cases, be present during the entire course period.
