II.1.5. Short description of the contract or purchase(s)

Finnmark Hospital would like to sign a contract for the delivery of 1 mobile bi-plan x-ray apparatus (in some environments such apparatuses are sometimes called G-arm), to aid diagnostics within orthopaedics, amongst other things.

The examinations shall be carried out in several places in the hospital, so the transportable apparatus ought to be easy to move.

Intended use:

The x-ray apparatus shall be used for surgical operative treatment of skeleton injuries.

The apparatus shall be used for skeleton examinations, in particular lower extremities, but also upper extremities and column.

The apparatus shall also be used for repositioning and fixing break injuries and luxations on lying patients.

The apparatus shall be used for x-raying when large parts of the image will consist of elements that cannot be x-rayed that move in and out of the image area.

See Annex 1, Tender Documentation and its appendix 1, Requirement Specifications.
