II.2.4. Description of the procurement

The framework agreement is for furniture intended for use by children in schools and nurseries in classrooms, sections, or communal areas. This concerns, for example, classrooms, group rooms, pupil cloakrooms, communal areas, section bases, quiet rooms, and changing rooms.

The framework includes the following categories: Tables, boards/presentation, cloakroom system, storage furniture, mattresses and play mats, children's furniture (intended for use by children up to 7 years), sofas and armchairs, noise-reducing furniture, prams, interior details, play and mobility furniture and chairs.

In general, the offered products should be suitable as regards:

- Preventing muscle pain
- Less body unrest The body gets the support it needs to sit.
- Sitting comfort It must not be uncomfortable to sit on.

The framework agreement is limited to office furniture (furniture for personnel rooms/offices, etc., that is intended for employees), and to health furniture (furniture for children and employees with special needs in all entities). The contracting authority can choose to use the framework agreement or hold a separate contest for some procurements of furniture for new buildings or major renovation projects

See the tender documentation and annexes for further details on the contest.
