The council is looking for a supplier of a mobile point of sale handheld ticketing machine and system to replace the existing hardware and software for Bournemouth and Poole's Seafront operations.

These machines would be used for selling land train tickets, the hire of beach furniture and adventure golf tickets and other operations that require the issue of tickets. The council is looking for a supplier to offer a back-office management system, provide on-going maintenance and technical support of hardware and software as well as meet the project implementation deadline.

The council will be looking to appoint a preferred supplier in Winter 2018. The supplier will then be required to implement ticketing machines for testing. The ticketing machines will then go through a testing phase with the council before full roll out of all machines. The full roll out of all machines will be subject to satisfactory testing and sign off from the council. The council will not be liable for any costs until the satisfactory completion of the testing phase which will be confirmed through a formal sign off with the council.
