The overall objective of the tender is a study aimed to build up the picture of the economic and environmental impact of the initiative. Overall analyses, comparisons, and reporting of results by individual projects, globally and by sector/area are important for feedback, to show the success of the initiative and to draw conclusions. The study will aim to support the overall analysis and evaluation of results and achievements of ongoing and finished eco-innovation market replication projects. It shall present comprehensive reports in a suitable structure, divided by priorities and sector/areas, as presented in the work programmes and call for proposals. The study will also give a consolidated feedback on specific sectors such as water, waste and raw materials. It will analyse deeply indicators used per project, aggregate them and highlight results and impacts. The study shall collect and organise data at least on the entire sample of projects of previous calls 2008–2011 and draw conclusions based on the grant agreements, selected deliverables of the projects, standardised questionnaires and individual interviews conducted with project coordinators.
