VI.3. Additional information

The procurement of the project manager for the Project is procured by the London Embassy in accordance with the Procurement Law of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan. From an EU perspective, this means that the London Embassy is applying the provisions of the Regulations on a voluntary basis to the Procurement Process.

Economic operators participate in the Procurement Process entirely at their own risk and the London Embassy does not accept any liability in respect of costs incurred in relation to this Procurement Process.

The London Embassy shall not evaluate any Tenders received past the specified deadline, compliance with which is the sole responsibility of interested parties.

Economic operators which alter their composition after submitting a Tender will be the subject of a re-evaluation. The London Embassy reserves the right not to award any contract as a result of the Procurement Process initiated by this contract notice and to make whatever changes the London Embassy deems appropriate to the content, process, timing and structure of this Procurement Process. The London Embassy reserves the right to terminate this Procurement Process at any time.

It is anticipated that the successful tenderer will be announced in December 2017.

Under section II.2.7) of this notice, the duration of contract is estimated to be two years. The Project Duration included in this Invitation to Tender is an estimate only. The Lump Sum price to be provided by the Bidder is for the provision of Services for the entire Duration of the Project, and no additional costs will be claimable by the Project Manager under the Contract purely by reason of the Duration of the Project being extended beyond that estimate.
