II.1.4. Short description

Policy preparation in the Commission is supported by both retrospective evaluations and forward-looking impact assessments, which are key elements of the EU decision-making process meant to promote more informed political choices and contribute to better regulation. Both look at how a problem is, or should be, addressed to achieve the desired objectives taking into account costs and benefits. Both are based on an integrated approach that addresses impacts across the environmental, social and economic pillars; both rely on an in-depth economic analysis. The overall objective of this framework contract is to facilitate the procurement of economic studies and other supporting services which will feed into the impact assessments and evaluations of the policies of DG Internal Market, Industry, Entrepreneurship and SMEs. The main reference for this exercise will be 'Better regulation guidelines' and 'Better regulation toolbox'.
