II.1.5. Short description of the contract or purchase(s)

There shall be acquired a new pipe organ in the magnitude of 12 tones for the Soma chapel. The joint council requests a versatile instrument of high quality, which can meet the needs for music for funerals both in a clerical and other types of direction.

It is important that the instrument is both completely molded and appears to be flexible in relation to the registry selection, dynamic opportunities and predictability for users.

The organ at a funeral chapel must appear to be readily available for musicians to operate. There shall also be some concerts (2-3 times oer year) in the chapel.
