The most important part of the framework agreements' value is planned as one joint call-off with delivery by 1 July 2017. The intention of the framework agreements is to i.a. give room for deviance from the given estimated scopes, room for procurements from the selected supplier's assortment for the segments included in the framework agreement, as well as room for additional purchases subsequent to the first main delivery. Even if it is NIH's clear wish to make one large and joint call-off as described above, tenderers must be prepared for considerable deviations from the described extent and for changed progress, due to, amongst other reasons, budget reasons and changed progress in the renovation project.
