Rotherham's emerging health and wellbeing strategy (2018-25) identifies the transformation of the offer made to people with autism and/or ADHD as a key priority to ensure children and adults with autism and/or ADHD get:

- the best start in life and go on to achieve their potential and have a healthy adolescence and early adulthood;
- the best possible mental health and wellbeing and have a good quality of life;
- live well and live longer.

Rotherham CCG Commissioning Plan (2018 – 20) gives a commitment to ensure; all children, young people and adults with autism in Rotherham are able to:

- live fulfilling and rewarding lives within a community that accepts and understands them;
- receive a diagnosis and access support if they need it;
- depend on mainstream public and third sector services to treat them fairly as individuals to get the right information and help them make the most of their talents.
