II.1.4. Short description

NNL have a requirement for third party safety consultancy services to support operations. Currently these requirements are fulfilled through an existing suite of Framework Agreements, awarded in 2013 and further extended in 2016, however there is a need to approach the market again. Since moving to Contracting Authority status in 2017 NNL are now required to competitively tender all above threshold supplier needs in accordance with OJEU Procurement Regulations.

Quite often, the need for NNL to enlist safety consultancy support is client driven so having pre-qualified, commercially viable suppliers improves NNL's speed of response. Multi-supplier frameworks will allow NNL to be agile enough to meet client needs without having to conduct multiple procurements adhering to OJEU timescales.

NNL's approach will be to award a number of Framework Agreements against four defined lots, on a 2 years plus one plus one basis. Suppliers who are successfully selected to a framework will then be i
