II.2.4. Description of the procurement

The municipalities are responsible for organising clinical veterinary duty services.

The veterinary duties scheme was established in accordance with the Act from 15.6.2001 n° 75 on veterinary surgeons and other animal health personnel § 3a.

The scheme with veterinary duties shall ensure that the municipalities/inter-municipalities establish a clinical duty scheme for veterinary surgeons in all parts of the country, so that necessary veterinary help can be obtained outside ordinary working hours. The veterinary duty is a necessary part of the stand-by against serious infectious animal diseases and it is important for maintaining good animal welfare.

The award of the duty services has previously been made in accordance with a contract between the Norwegian Veterinary Association (DNV) and KS. The contract expired 1.7.2012. In order to practice the duty scheme in accordance with the current laws and regulations, the contracts between the duty districts and the veterinary surgeons will now be awarded as ordinary procurements.

160 duty districts have been established, in addition to five duties in "urban areas".

A contract for veterinary duty services in duty district Fræna and Averøy.

4 contracts will be signed in this contract to cover the need for veterinary surgeons in the duty scheme. Further details on the number of contracts that will be signed and the requirements for cooperation between the veterinary surgeons are in point 4 below and in the requirement specification's point 6.
