Information about review deadlines: Fvl. § 29. (appeals deadline). The deadline for appeals is 3 weeks from the date the notification of the decision has been reached by the party in question. If the notification occurs at the public notice, the appeals deadline begins to run from the day the decision was first announced. For those who have not received notification of the decision, the deadline runs from the time he has been given or should have gained knowledge of the decision. If a decision is to grant someone a right, the appeals deadline for others shall, however, at the latest, run out when three months have passed from the point in time the decision was made. Has a party required to state the justification for the decision in accordance with § 24 second paragraph, the appeals deadline is cancelled. The new deadline for lodging appeals will run from the time notification of the justification has been received, or he is otherwise made aware of it. The relevant sub-body or appeals body can, in particular, extend the appeals deadline before it has expired.
