VI.3. Additional information

Rules on access to the market:

Participation in this call for tenders is open on equal terms to all natural and legal persons falling within the scope of the EU Treaties (this includes all economic operators registered in the EU and all EU citizens).

Procurement procedures of the EIB are not covered by the WTO Multilateral Government Procurement Agreement (GPA).

Tenderers established in third countries (non-EU countries) do not have the right to participate in this call for tenders unless there are bilateral or special international agreements in the field of public procurement between a third country and the European Union in place. In case there is no such agreement or the agreement does not apply to the kind of contracts put out to tender, tenderers of third countries are not entitled to participate. For further details please see also <http://ec.europa.eu/trade/policy/accessing-markets/public-procurement/>.

The relevant international agreements in the field of public procurement are:

- Stabilisation and Association Agreements for economic operators established in FYROM, Albania, Montenegro, Serbia and Bosnia and Herzegovina,
- EEA Agreement for economic operators established in Iceland, Norway and Liechtenstein.

The above rules of access to the market apply to single tenderers as well as partners in a consortium of tenderers. It is to be noted that the rules of access to the market do not apply to subcontractors, i.e. a consortium of eligible tenderers could choose a subcontractor from a non-eligible country.
