II.2.4. Description of the procurement

RNOH is seeking the development and implementation of an Open-Source Clinical System Platform (Solution) which will be made freely available by the relevant supplier to the wider NHS on a royalty-free, perpetual, non-exclusive, worldwide licence with an unrestricted right for any relevant NHS Organisation to adapt, edit, copy, reproduce, distribute, communicate to the public and/or carry out any other acts; and with no obligation on the part of to request any further licence, consent or permission from the supplier for the carrying out of any such act(s). The Trust requires that the solution to be provided enables, amongst other benefits, data aggregation and holistic analytics across a variety of Trust use-cases. Access and operation of the solution will be undertaken by a range of Trust-authorised end users.

This Contract Notice is supported by full SQ documentation which sets out in more detail the requirements of the RNOH. The SQ can be accessed, from the date of this Contract Notice, via the procurement portal (<https://procontract.due-north.com/Advert/Index?advertId=d10f8640-7be2-e811-80ef-005056b64545>). Tenderers should look for the following reference number: PRO-321-2018. The closing date for completion and submission of the SQ is 21.12.2018 at 00:00.
