II.1.4. Short description

A general aim for the 'ID-porten', 'Maskinporten', and the contact and reservation register is secure and robust operation. This is, amongst other things, laid down in Difi's award of contract letter, which states 'Secure operation and strategic development of joint systems are decisive for succeeding with the digitalisation of the public sector as a whole'.

In order to get an overview of vulnerabilities and secure systems against those that are most serious, Difi would like to procure services within penetration testing and vulnerability analyses. See Annex 1 for further details on the assignment.

The tender must include:

- an account of how the assignment will be solved,
- an overview of the offered consultant/consultants, and what each individual will contribute,
- a schedule/resource plan for how the consultant/consultants can be used,
- CVs for the consultant/consultants,
- a description of any previous experience from similar assignments,
- a tender letter.
