Main features of the procedure: Melhus municipality is responsible for providing proper health and care services to persons with comprehensive and compound assistance needs. The municipality currently faces acute situations. The background for this is persistent challenges connected to professional prudence, stable manpower and operation. In order to ensure continuity of the service offer and ensure residents' needs in a safe and reliable manner, it is necessary to procure (temporary) suitable housing as well as health and care services from an external service provider. This primarily applies to adult persons with compound help needs and who may be at risk for acting behaviour.
