II.2.4. Description of the procurement

Nordre Follo Municipality will enter into a framework agreement for tour bus transport that meets the contracting authority's need for transport by minibus, bus and tour bus.

Transport is needed for various activities connected to the contracting authorities' entities, e.g., teaching, excursions, activity days, study trips, school camps, etc. The activities usually finish in one day, but they can also run for longer periods.

The size of the assignments can vary from trips with one minibus to assignments that require many buses, for example a skiing day for an entire school.

Based on historical data, the estimated procurement value is between 600 000 NOK and 1 600 000 NOK per annum. The value is an estimate and must therefore be considered non binding. The procurement volume can differ from year to year and the figures are an estimate of the framework agreement. The stated figures are not representing any obligations in relation to procurements. It will be the contracting authority's actual need that will always determine the amount of call-offs in the contract period.

The contract does not include scheduled driving.

The wanted start-up date for the contract is as soon as possible in 2020.
