II.1.4. Short description

To explore opportunities offered by the existing property and associated buildings, the Contracting Authority is announcing a tender contest for joint parallel assignments. We would like answers as to what development the buildings and site can withstand and how ambitions and goals can be realised in a comprehensive plan. The parallel assignments will not provide a final answer as to how the property will be developed, but will be an important knowledge base for cooperation, planning initiatives and concept selection studies that Oslo municipality will carry out in connection with the relevant purpose-built buildings to be placed on the property. Please refer to Appendix 1 Delivery description for parallel assignments for a further description of the assignment. Refer also to the attached ambition document for the overall development of the property. This describes the Contracting Authority's common goals and ambitions that will form the basis for both the parallel assignments and further planning processes.
