VI.3. Additional information

Per the actual contract value in section V.2.4 of the announcement)

Pursuant to the Act relating to public access to documents in public administration Section 13 and the Public Administration Act Section 13, first section 2), the actual contract value is not stated in the tender notice.

NIPH considers unit price (price per vaccine dose) to be information that is of competitive importance and must be kept secret for the sake of the concerned information, which in this case is GlaxoSmithKline AS, and that information about unit price is therefore subject to confidentiality in accordance with above-mentioned provisions.

In this competition, the price per dose (unit price) is the only price element in the offers. If the actual contract value had been published in the tender notice, it would have been possible to calculate the unit price based on the contract value and other public information in the tender documentation.
