NUTS code: ES114 Pontevedra

Main site or place of performance: As a general rule, the services are to be provided by the interim personnel at EFCA's premises in Vigo (Spain). In case EFCA deemed it necessary, upon request, they may be provided remotely.

II.2.4. Description of the procurement

EFCA may need the services of interim personnel, as a complement to its statutory staff, to perform work of a temporary nature:

- to replace statutory staff temporarily absent due to maternity leave, sickness or other reasons;
- to cope with peak periods which require an additional workforce for a fixed period of time;
- to perform work in connection with a specific project.

The contractor must apply to the interim personnel the applicable Spanish social and labour legislation provisions in force, it being understood that the provision of interim personnel to EFCA shall in no way lead to an employment relationship between said interim personnel and EFCA and hence the regulations applicable specifically to EFCA statutory staff (Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities) shall not apply to the interim personnel. The contractor undertakes to comply with all applicable legislative and regulatory provisions in force locally, notably but not limited to the areas of social security, health and safety, pension contributions and labour and tax legislation.

For the avoidance of doubt, it is to be pointed out that interim personnel:

- (a) shall not have any direct contractual relationship with EFCA;
- (b) will not have power to represent or commit EFCA; nor
- (c) will not be allowed to manage EFCA statutory staff directly.
