Section VI: Complementary information

VI.1. Information about recurrence

This is a recurrent procurement: yes

VI.3. Additional information

The framework is intended to be the sole vehicle for sourcing of care and support at home services from the commencement date. As such, in addition to the services detailed in the specification, the Council intends to use the framework, including utilising reserve arrangements or further competitions in lot 3, to develop, test, evaluate and, where appropriate, roll-out new and innovative ways of commissioning and delivering care and support at home to support service users to increase and maintain levels of independence. Lot

3 (reserve arrangements) and lot 4 (live-in arrangements) are now open for additional joiners throughout its contractual lifespan. It is the intention that the below CCGs (and, if relevant, their successor organisations) can purchase their own services under this arrangement: West Sussex Clinical Commissioning Groups (CCG) of Wicker House, High Street, Worthing, BN11 1DJ.
