II.1.4. Short description

The Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA) engages in partnerships with international development NGOs in order to further its policy objectives reflected in Ireland's Policy for International Development, A Better World. The Civil Society Unit (CSU) operates schemes to support these partnerships, such as Ireland's Civil Society Partnership for A Better World (2023 to 2027) ICSP and Strategic Partnerships. The Department is seeking support with these partnerships, which focus on implementing long-term development, humanitarian and global citizenship interventions overseas and in Ireland. Monitoring visits will be undertaken to build understanding of partners' work, assess and strengthen progress, acquire mutual learning and deepen the principle of mutual accountability in the partnership. DFA is establishing a framework of consultants to provide technical support to these visits from 2023-2027.
