II.2.4. Description of the procurement

The object of this procedure is to award a framework contract for the supply to the contracting authority of:

- books in paper format;
- yearbooks, updates and monographic series in paper or electronic format, and
- exceptionally, electronic books (e-books).

‘Book’ means any work which is not part of a series – irrespective or not of whether that series is regularly published – and which can be ordered on an ad hoc basis.

‘Yearbook’: a series containing reference material intended to be revised at annual intervals.

‘Monographic series’: a group of distinct resources linked together by the fact that in addition to its own title, each resource bears a collective title applying to the group as a whole.

‘E-book (electronic book)’ means a non-serial digital document, irrespective or not of whether it is licensed, in which a searchable text prevails, and which can be considered by analogy with a printed book (monograph).
