2.1. Procedure

Title: Transport and sorting line for the laundry at Helse Bergen HF

Description: Helse Bergen HF needs to increase the capacity and reliability of the current laundry. The existing production line was installed in 2010 and it has been subjected to considerable wear and tear over time. The laundry has high production and is dependant on stable and predictable operation. There is, therefore, a need to renew and further develop parts of the production line, at the same time as the existing equipment that continues to function well, shall be able to be included in the future system.
