II.2.4. Description of the procurement

Enter into a partnership with a tenderer that can develop communication systems based on the contracting authority's established system portfolio for this (reuse ideas, concepts, and user insight). The contracting authority has used considerable resources over many years to come up with the new innovative communication systems, and would like to share experiences, competence, ideas, etc., with a partner that will see to the development, management, and further development of the systems in the future for the contracting authority, collaborating libraries, and other actors, (in other words, a commercialisation of the product is expected). In the introductory development work, the contracting authority and collaborating libraries expect to have good influence on the tenderer's design of the system and implementation. Based on the contracting authority's considerable use of resources and developed competence/experience in the field, our competence contribution in the development work is expected to be taken into consideration in licence prices for the contracting authority for the product.

The contracting authority has ambitious goals for new digital systems, and is looking for one or more tenderers that can join us on the road to reaching these goals.
