II.1.4. Short description

The University's Virtual Learning Environment (VLE) project is seeking the services of a pedagogically informed peer learning tool that can enable peer review including video submission and code assignments. The peer learning tool should provide comprehensive student guidance and be configurable in multiple ways to suit assignment formats. In addition to the peer learning tool, users should have access to support resources to scaffold the peer review process.

All interested interactive peer learning tool providers must have a proven track record, along with demonstrable knowledge, in successfully implementing their solution in other higher educational institutions. It is essential that the peer learning tool fully integrates with the Brightspace VLE. The list below is indicative of the functionality required by the peer learning tool and is not intended to be an exhaustive list and additional functionality may be required.
