II.1.4. Short description

The government appointed a committee to review the dental health field on 12 August 2022. The committee must carry out a comprehensive review of the dental health service, including organisation, funding and the legislation including regulations and rights. In connection with the committee's work, there is a need to carry out a price survey, as well as a survey of the tender part of the dental health service. There is a particular need to investigate the price and market structure for the private dental health service. In addition to those with rights under the Dental Health Services Act, the county dental health service also treats adult patients. In some cases, the county dental health service is an important part of the population's access to dental health services, and in some places, it is the only dental health service available. Data obtained as part of the assignment must be made available in its entirety to the committee for possible further analyses.
