2.1. Procedure

Title: 25/8920 - Framework agreement Antiquarian trade services

Description: Larvik municipality intends to procure a framework agreement for antiquarian trade services at Herregården in Larvik.

Procedure identifier: f258a346-b479-48b0-9068-b67f77532c50

Internal identifier: 2025/8920

Type of procedure: Open

The procedure is accelerated: no

Main features of the procedure: Larvik municipality shall, in cooperation with vestfold museums IKS, carry out restoration work in the main building, Herregården in Larvik. Colour surveys and preservation services shall work together on the preservation. Colour surveys are announced as a separate framework agreement where NIKU is the supplier and the framework agreement for preservation is currently used up and shall be republished. Herregården in Larvik is a listed building (1923) that was altered to a museum in connection with the fredningen. The main building was searched and restored in the 1920s. Several restorations have also been carried out in the main building later. The objective of the framework agreement is to ensure access to qualified resources within antiquarian trade services for planned works.
