2.1. Menetlus

Pealkiri: Delivery of Meteorological Weather Balloons to Danish Meteorological Institute (DMI)
Kirjeldus: The scope of this tender is to procure a framework agreement, which enables DMI to purchase meteorological weather balloons over a four-year period. This agreement will enable DMI to conduct and collect upper-air meteorological measurements that provide inputs to numerical weather predictions and additionally are used for other purposes consistent with DMI's general work scope and obligations as National Meteorological Service and contributor to international collaboration. The weather balloons will be used for radiosonde measurements which will be conducted from DMI's manually operated radiosonde stations (four in Greenland and three established onboard ships sailing between Denmark and Greenland). The deliveries will consist of meteorological weather balloons with necks.

5.1.9. Kvalifitseerimistingimused

Valikukriteeriumide allikad: Teade

Kriteerium: Viited määratud tarnetele

Valikukriteeriumi kirjeldus: The tenderer must in the ESPD provide at least 1 (one) and up to a maximum of 3 (three) references on similar past deliveries. A list of references of "similar deliveries", fulfilled (i.e. on-going or executed) by the tenderer in the past 5 (five) years prior to the deadline for submission of the tender, should be provided. The contracting authority would prefer that the list includes a short description of the project and the role undertaken by the tenderer and should also include the sum, number of weather balloons delivered, dates and recipients involved. As a minimum requirement, the applicant has at least 1 (one) reference of "similar deliveries". In the context of this tender, "similar deliveries" shall mean deliveries containing the following: Weather balloons applied for professional meteorological use. If the tenderer is a group of economic operators, (e.g. a consortium), or relies on the capacity of other entities to fulfill the minimum requirement for technical and professional ability the information must be submitted for each participating entity in the group / the tenderer and the supporting entity/entities individually. The tenderer has to state the above demanded information in the ESPD (European Single Procurement Document). The information provided in the ESPD regarding technical and professional ability is considered as final documentation for tenderer's references. However, DMI reserves the right to contact the tenderer and/or the recipients of the deliveries in order to verify the information.

5.1.16. Lisateave, lepitus ja vaidlustus

Vaidlustusorgan: Klagenævnet for Udbud

Teave vaidlustamise tähtaegade kohta: The description of the time limits for review procedures. (English) Pursuant to Consolidated Act no. 593 of 2 June 2016 on the Complaints Board for Public Procurement as amended, the following time limits apply to the filing of requests for a review procedure: Complaints about procurement procedures or decisions falling within Part II of the Danish Public Procurement Act which are not covered by subsection 1 of the Act, must, according to section 7(2) of the Act, be filed with the Danish Complaints Board for Public Procurement within: (1) 45 calendar days of the contracting authority having published a notice in the Official Journal of the European Union to the effect that the contracting authority has entered into a contract. The time limit is calculated from the date after the date when the notice was published; (2) 30 calendar days, calculated from the date after the date when the contracting authority notified the affected tenderers that a contract based on a framework agreement with reopening of competition or a dynamic purchasing system has been entered into, if the notification contained a statement of the reasons for the decision. (3) six months of the contracting authority having entered into a framework agreement, counted from the date after the date when the contracting authority notified the affected candidates and tenderers, see section 2(2) of the Act, or section 171(4) of the Danish Public Procurement Act. (4) 20 calendar days calculated from the date after the contracting authority has announced its decision, see section 185(2), second sentence, of the Danish Public Procurement Act. If a contracting authority has complied with the procedure outlined in section 4 of the Act to ensure that a contract is not declared ineffective, see section 7(3) of the Act, an application for a review of whether the contracting authority has entered into a contract in contravention of the Public Procurement Directive without prior publication of a contract notice in the Official Journal of the European Union must be filed with the Danish Complaints Board for Public Procurement within 30 calendar days calculated from the date after the date when the contracting authority has published a notice in the Official Journal of the European Union stating that the contracting authority has entered into a contract, provided that the notice contains the reasons for the contracting authority's decision to award the contract without prior publication of a contract notice in the Official Journal of the European Union. Not later than on the date of the filing of an application for a review procedure with the Danish Complaints Board for Public Procurement, the applicant must notify the contracting authority in writing that an application for a review procedure has been filed with the Danish Complaints Board for Public Procurement, see section 6(4) of the Act. Furthermore, the contracting authority must be informed of whether the application for a review procedure has been filed in the stand-still period, see section 3(1) or (2) of the Act, or during the period of 10 calendar days laid down in section 4(1)(ii). In cases where the application for a review procedure has not been filed in the above-mentioned periods, the applicant must also state whether the applicant has applied for a stay pending the outcome of the review procedure, see section 12(1) of the Act. The Danish Complaints Board for Public Procurement's own review procedure guidelines are available on www.klfu.dk.
