Eolas faoi spriocdhátaí athbhreithnithe: A request for protection of rights may be filed throughout the entire public procurement procedure, unless the PPA provides otherwise, but no later than ten days from the date of publication on the Public Procurement Portal of the contracting authority's decision concluding the public procurement procedure. A request contesting the contracting authority's actions in relation to the type of procedure, content of the public invitation and procurement documentation is considered timely if received by the contracting authority no later than three days before the expiry of the deadline for submission of tenders/applications, regardless of the method of delivery. A request contesting the contracting authority's actions taken after the expiry of the tender submission deadline shall be filed within ten days of the date of publication of the contracting authority's decision on the Portal, or from the date of receipt in cases where Portal publication is not required by the PPA. After the deadline for filing, the applicant may not supplement the request with new grounds, nor challenge other actions of the contracting authority of which they were or could have been aware before the deadline but did not raise in the filed request. A request may not challenge contracting authority actions whose grounds were or could have been known before the deadline, but were not raised. If re-filed by the same applicant, the request may not challenge actions the applicant knew or could have known when filing the previous request. Possible deficiencies in the procurement documentation not raised pursuant to Article 97 of the PPA may not be the subject of challenge. The contracting authority publishes a notice of the filed request on the Portal no later than the next day after receipt. Filing suspends the continuation of the procedure until the conclusion of the review procedure. The request must contain data required by Article 217 of the PPA. If the applicant acts through an authorised representative, the request must be accompanied by the authorisation. An applicant whose residence or registered office is abroad must designate an authorised representative for service of documents in the Republic of Serbia. When submitting the request to the contracting authority, proof of payment of the fee must be attached. Valid proof, in accordance with the Republic Commission's Instructions on fee payment, is published on the Republic Commission's website. Fee amount: I. If the request is filed pursuant to Article 214, paragraphs 2 and 4, and Article 215 of the PPA: – The fee is RSD 120,000 regardless of the estimated value. II. If the request is filed pursuant to Article 214, paragraph 3 of the PPA: – 0.1% of the estimated procurement value, max RSD 1,200,000, where the estimated value exceeds RSD 120,000,000. – RSD 120,000 where the sum of the estimated values of all contested lots does not exceed RSD 120,000,000. – 0.1% of the sum of estimated values of all contested lots, max RSD 1,200,000, where that value exceeds RSD 120,000,000.
