Paaiškinimas:

In accordance with the terms of the framework agreement, the justification for making a direct award is as follows:

The Bristol and North Somerset and South Gloucestershire (BNSSG) Sustainability and Transformation Partnerships (STP) long term plan sets out how the region will develop more effective and joined up integration of systems between acute and community providers. This includes the convergence of technical system platforms across acute trusts as outlined in the NBT Digital Vision published in October 2018.

The adoption of the same solution will provide a solid foundation that will enable NBT to collaborate and interoperate with BNNSG Acute providers and share developments in the future. Both University Hospitals Bristol and Weston Area Health Trust are aligned on the System C solution and so to deliver the goals outlined by the NBT Digital Vision and STP LTP, NBT need to also align the platform.

A reduction in the level of divergence leads to the ability for faster flow of information, assessment and clinical decision making where there is cross-Trust patient flow.

The convergence of systems will provide NBT with a pathway to:

- develop a shared infrastructure plan and consolidation of existing infrastructure,
- creating interoperability plans to enhance mobility, remote and flexibility working.

There is considerable clinical traffic between NBT and UHBristol and to improve patient safety and continuity of care it is essential to establish full information flows and cross-patient management between providers at the point of care across BNSSG using the same systems.

Many clinicians work across NBT and UH Bristol and there is a need to reduce the complexities for end users of having to learn and use different systems and a common IT solution will reduce this burden.

The timescales for convergence outlined in the NBT Digital Vision and STP Long Term Plan are rapid and can only be achieved if BNNSG providers work together and reduce the level of system divergence by adopting the same solution across BNSSG and also taking into consideration the level of investment already undertaken by partner organisations.

To be able to establish an integrated EPR solution integration and data sharing factors, technical platform implications, user interface design aspects, bed management issues and the availability of live application program interfaces' (API's) need to be considered.

For example, full 2-integration, via HL7 FHIR messaging standards is required to meet clinical instant messaging application needs. The solution requires full 2-way integration with the clinical observations and assessments solution, including bed moves from within the mobile solution.

Full 2-way integration with the theatres management solution, that shows patient theatre status within the EPR solution in real-time.

Integrated test requests and results with sufficient detail to enable automatic entry into discharge summaries.

Access required to core PAS information across multiple device styles with the ability to search for a patient without navigating multiple system forms first.

Pre-population of forms with previously captured form data, such as last ED episode, with visible source description and bed management application integrated into core PAS.
