Furthermore, from a market perspective, dividing the contract into lots is not considered likely to provide additional economic operators, including SMEs, with an increased opportunity to submit tenders. Applicants/tenderers are encouraged to seek clarification of any ambiguities or uncertainties by submitting questions concerning the procurement. All questions must be submitted via ETHICS by clicking "Send Question" under the "Communication" tab. The dialogue box must then be completed by stating the relevant reference and the question. Questions received later than six (6) full days before the respective deadlines for submission of applications and tenders will, as a general rule, not be answered. Technical questions concerning the use of the ETHICS procurement system must be addressed to the support service by telephone on +45 70 22 70 07 or by clicking the "Customer Service" icon.
